Did You Know...?

The Los Alamos Community Winds is always looking for new members? Did you play an instrument in high school? In college? If you did, you may have put it away 10, 20, 30 or more years ago, and thought that you would never be able to play again. Well, the LACW is your chance to put your talents to good use. The Los Alamos Community Winds is open to all-comers. We have members from middle school to senior citizens and the only requirement is that you know how to play an instrument. We are also always looking for volunteers to help with various projects and "behind the scenes" activities. If you have Tuesday evenings free, then the LACW is for you. Why not check us out and join in the fun and music?

We rehearse from 7:15 – 9:00 p.m. at the Los Alamos High School band room from September – May and at White Rock Baptist Church from June - August. Come join the band!

About Our Director

Ted Vives is now in his 23rd season as musical and artistic director for the Award-Winning Los Alamos Community Winds. He also serves as the music director for the White Mountain Symphony Orchestra in Show Low, AZ.

Vives began music studies at the age of 4, taking piano and theory lessons from Edgar and Dorothy Glyde. His musical interests changed to trombone performance and composition upon entering the public school system. Vives holds bachelor's degrees in both composition and music education from Florida State University where he studied with John Boda, Roy Johnson, and Charles Carter and conducting with James Croft. He also holds a Masters of Music in Composition and a Ph.D. in Music Education from the University of Florida where he studied composition with Budd Udell and John D. White and conducting with David Waybright. He has taught in the public schools in Florida and has served as a clinician at band and music camps in many states.

Dr. Vives holds memberships in Kappa Kappa Psi, Tau Beta Sigma, Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia, Phi Kappa Phi, Music Educators National Conference, Music Teachers National Association, National Band Association, and the Conductor's Guild. He resides in Los Alamos, New Mexico with his wife Paula, son Alex, and daughter Abby.
